

FORTUNATELY/UNFORTUNATELY Story Game

To play: all you need is the start of a story, some friends to play with and your brain.

The first person starts the story, aloud to the whole group:

"Once upon a time, Big Rock, the Wrestling Troll, was hungry for some rocks."

The next person continues the story with something UNFORTUNATE, relating to what they just heard:

"UNFORTUNATELY, the evil Lord Veto had stolen all the rocks in the whole forest."

The next person changes the story with FORTUNATELY:

"FORTUNATELY, Big Rock met up with Jack and Milo, and they found a big pile of rocks outside of the forest, next to a big blue lake."

And the story continues to alternate fortunately, unfortunately as each person adds to the story:

"UNFORTUNATELY a big sea monster, came out of the lake and starting chasing the three friends."

"FORTUNATELY, Big Rock teamed up with Princess Ava (aka the Masked Avenger) and they were able to wrestle the monster back into the lake."

And on and on until it seems like a good time to end the story - either with a fortunate ending or an unfortunate one!

So, how does your story start?
